1. How can the relationships among all the tables in a dataset be identified and analyzed??
2. How can the total number of unique customers be determined?
3. What steps can be taken to calculate the occupancy rate?
4. How can the distribution of customer complaints be analyzed room-wise?
5. What are the key complaints identified in customer feedback?
6. How can the customer retention rate be calculated?
7. How can the total number of complaints be identified for each room?
8. What is the region-wise breakdown of offers sent and customer engagement?
9. How can the revenue be calculated for each room?